Dear Colonel Odom:

I am writing to express my appreciation for your presentation at our Soviet Studies Seminar. Our Intelligence Division staff and the Special Agents attending the seminar have told me that your lecture and discussion were informative, useful, stimulating and contributed significantly to the success of the seminar.

We hope that we can continue our dialogue with you and look forward to the possibility of similar, future sessions.

We are most grateful for your contribution.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster
Director
